Corporate Accountability

About Me ~

I am not associated with any political party. My sole goal in running for office is to see our nation thrive and prosper, not engage in partisan bickering. America was founded as a representative democracy, yet currently the only people our political leaders represent are themselves. They have forgotten that they are the employees of the American people, not their dictators.

Although I have Ideas, I have no ideological platform. As your employee, my job is to serve the needs of the people and act as an outlet for your voices, not tell you what is best for you by ignoring your opinions.

Abraham Lincoln warned us that it would be our resolve which would ensure that “government of the people, by the people and for the people” would not perish from the earth, to be replaced by demagogues and tyrants. The time to exercise that resolve is now, and bring the government back to the people.

I am your candidate, your employee. I will not accept a single dollar from private corporations or interest groups. I will not be bought and I will not be bribed.

Above all feel free to ask me about my platform or alert me to any issues you want addressed. I am here to listen.
